

Course
Fee: Nil

This Course is Open to all Bengali Honours
Course Students

Course Outcome

This add on course on Kamini Roy's life and literature would deeply engage students with the life of the pioneering feminist poet and her literary contributions during Bengal's renaissance period. Exploring Roy's poetry and essays, the course would reveal her advocacy for women's rights and education, reflecting on her significant role in shaping early feminist discourse in India. Students would examine Roy's poetic style, rich with emotive strength and lyrical beauty, alongside her intellectual rigor, which challenged contemporary norms and championed gender equality. Through her works, such as the notable "Alo O Chhaya", participants would dissect themes of female empowerment and social reform. The course would also contextualize Roy's achievements within the wider historical and cultural movements of her time, emphasizing her influence on subsequent generations of writers and activists. Upon the completion of this add on course students would gain a holistic view of Roy's impact on Bengali literature and her lasting legacy as a feminist icon.

Course Coordinator

Abdur Razzak

State Aided College Teacher
Department of Bengali
Hazi A. K. Khan College

Course Design

পর্ব ১ (10 Hours)

কামিনী রায়ের জীবন ও সাহিত্য

পর্ব ২ (10 Hours)

কাব্যগ্রন্থঃ আলো ও ছায়া

পর্ব ৩ (10 Hours)

কবিতাঃ সুখ, স্মৃতিচিহ্ন, চন্দ্রাপীড়ের
জাগরণ, পাছে লোক কিছু বলে

Department of Bengali
HAZI A. K. KHAN COLLEGE

Hariharpara, Murshidabad

offers

কামিনী রায়ের
জীবন ও সাহিত্য

ADD ON COURSE

Course Duration: 30 Hours

Commencement of Classes:
April 2023