

Department of Bengali
HAZI A. K. KHAN COLLEGE

Hariharpara, Murshidabad

offers

সূচিত্রা ভট্টাচার্যের
জীবন ও সাহিত্য

ADD ON COURSE

Course Duration: 30 Hours

Commencement of Classes:
April 2023

Course
Fee: Nil

This Course is Open to all
Programme
Course
Students

Course Coordinator

Dr. Nanigopal Malo
Assistant Professor
Department of Bengali
Hazi A. K. Khan College

Course Design

পর্ব ১ (10 Hours)

সূচিত্রা ভট্টাচার্যের জীবন ও সাহিত্য

পর্ব ২ (10 Hours)

উপন্যাসঃ কাছের মানুষ

পর্ব ৩ (10 Hours)

অস্তরাগ, মনি হায়দার, বাড়ি, মধ্যবিত্ত

Course Outcome

This add on course on the life and literature of Suchitra Bhattacharya would offer an extensive exploration of this celebrated Bengali novelist's works, which poignantly capture the intricacies of middle-class life in urban India. Bhattacharya's literature is known for its strong female characters and its unflinching examination of contemporary social issues, which often challenge the traditional norms. Through her stories, one would gain insight into the psychological depth of human relationships, the subtleties of domestic life, and the complexities of societal expectations.

Participants would delve into Bhattacharya's narrative techniques and her ability to weave suspense with social commentary, providing a rich tapestry of modern Indian culture and feminist thought. The outcome of such a course would be a deep appreciation of Bhattacharya's contribution to Bengali literature, enhanced critical thinking about gender and social structures, and an understanding of the transformative power of storytelling in addressing human experiences.