

Course Outcome

- Define the concepts of Environmental Philosophy
- Explain climate change according to these ethical concepts
- Explain the difference between anthropocentric and non-anthropocentric ethic theories
- Articulate and evaluate to the concept of ecological system
- Students can gain proper knowledge about ecology and eco-feminism
- Students will be able to identify the problem of nature
- To introduce students to a variety of approaches to thinking about nature
- To provide an avenue for students to love nature

HAZI A. K. KHAN COLLEGE
Hariharpara * Murshidabad

Department of philosophy

ADD-ON COURSE : ENVIRONMENTAL PHILOSOPHY

COURSE CO-ORDINATOR
DR. MUNMUN DUTTA
Assistant Professor
Department of Philosophy

COMMENCEMENT OF THE COURSE: APRIL, 2023
COURSE DURATION: 30 HOURS

SESSION : 2022-2023
All Under-Graduate Students of Philosophy Honours

NO COURSE FEE

COURSE OUTLINE / SYLLABUS

- ★ Introduction to Environmental Philosophy
  - Course introduction
  - Nature and Scope
- ★ Ethical concept of climate change
  - The ethics of climate change
- ★ Anthropocentric View
  - Preservation of Wilderness
- ★ Ecosystem
  - Ecology
- ★ Eco-feminism
  - Connection between women and nature
  - Chipko Movement
- ★ The economic approach to valuing nature
- ★ Philosophy of Nature to Environmental Philosophy