

Value Added Course

on

Cultural & Heritage Tourism in India

Offered by

Department of History

Hazi A. K. Khan College

Open to all History Honours & Major students

Session: 2023-2024

Course Coordinator: Dr. Piyali Dan, Assistant Professor of History

Course commencement date: 15th May, 2024

Course Outcome

This course will help to

- gain a profound knowledge of India's diverse cultural heritage, including its historical monuments, art, music, dance, and traditional practices.
- know about the principles and practices of tourism management, including marketing, planning, and sustainable tourism development.
- build a strong foundation for pursuing careers in these fields.
- develop skills in research, documentation, and interpretation of cultural heritage, which are valuable in academia and cultural management.

Registration Link: <https://forms.gle/S9iqDtZqhyTHYwve6>

No Course Fee