Tournament Highlights:

Eight departments participated with enthusiasm and showcased excellent sportsmanship. The competition proceeded smoothly without any chaos, obstacles, or issues, reflecting the high level of organization and discipline among the participants. The final match saw the Department of Education and the Department of Bengali competing fiercely. Ultimately, the Department of Education emerged as the champion, while the Department of Bengali secured the runners-up position.

Awards and Recognition:

The champion and runners-up teams were awarded certificates as a symbol of their excellence. All participants received encouragement and were motivated to perform even better in future competitions.

Closing Remarks:

The Head of the Physical Education Department, Mr. Sanjit Kumar Roy, proposed a vote of thanks. He expressed gratitude to all organizing officials, teachers, and participants, and encouraged everyone to continue striving for excellence in future events.

The competition concluded around 3:45 PM, leaving the participants and organizers content and looking forward to more such engaging and successful events in the future.

The event was a testament to the collaborative spirit and dedication of the students and faculty at Hazi A. K. Khan College, fostering a vibrant and inclusive sports culture within the institution.
