Name of the event: Campaign against Parthenium

Date of the event: 12/08/2019

Venue of the event: Swaruppur Road

Event category: Health Awareness

Number of Participants: 17

Objectives:

- Raise awareness about the harmful effects of Parthenium hysterophorus (commonly known as Parthenium weed) on the environment and public health.
- Educate the local community about the importance of controlling the spread of Parthenium weed and its eradication.
- Encourage community participation in the removal of Parthenium weed to create a cleaner and safer environment.

Brief Description of the Programme

On August 12, 2019, an environmental awareness program titled "Campaign Against Parthenium" was organized at Swaruppur Road. Participants included NSS Programmes officer and members, volunteers and students dedicated to preserving the environment. The program involved uprooting parthenium weed to combat the spread of Parthenium weed. Participants brought gloves and other tools necessary for the job.

SWOC Analysis

Strengths:

- Participants were actively involved

Weaknesses:

- Limited resources, including funding, may have constrained the overall impact of the event.
