Name of the event: Women's Trafficking Awareness Camp" (NSS Day Celebration)
Date of the event: 24/09/2019
Venue of the event: Hariharpara Market
Event category: Women Empowerment & Gender Equality
Number of Participants: 21

Objectives:

1. Raise awareness about the pressing issue of women's trafficking in our society.
2. Educate the community about the signs of trafficking and how to prevent it.
3. Empower women and girls with knowledge and resources to protect themselves.
4. Mobilize local support to combat human trafficking and provide assistance to victims.

Brief Description of the Programme:

On September 24, 2019, the National Service Scheme (NSS) unit of Hazi A.K. Khan College proudly celebrated NSS Day by organizing a "Women's Trafficking Awareness Camp." The event united students, volunteers, and community members in a collective effort to address the issue of women's trafficking.

The camp featured informative sessions. Volunteers and NSS team shed light on the various aspects of trafficking, its signs, and how individuals and the community can play a pivotal role in its prevention and assistance to victims.

The participants actively engaged with the topics, asking questions and sharing their concerns. They also learned about legal aspects, support services, and resources available for victims of trafficking. The program emphasized the importance of vigilance, community involvement, and the protection of women and girls.

Strengths:

- The camp successfully educated the participants about the critical issue of women's trafficking.
- Diverse participation from NSS volunteers, students, and community members.
- Expert facilitators and a comprehensive agenda ensured a holistic understanding of the issue.

Weaknesses:

- Limited time for in-depth coverage of the subject matter.
- Resource constraints that might have restricted the dissemination of educational materials and resources.

Opportunities:

- Collaboration with local NGOs, law enforcement agencies, and women's support organizations to continue and expand awareness campaigns.
- Potential for follow-up workshops and initiatives to keep the momentum going.

Challenges:

- The deeply rooted nature of women's trafficking as a social issue poses a significant challenge.
- Ensuring continuous awareness and vigilance within the community to prevent trafficking.

OUTCOMES

The "Women's Trafficking Awareness Camp" conducted on NSS Day served as a crucial step in addressing the issue of women's trafficking. The event not only raised awareness but also empowered individuals with the knowledge and resources to prevent and combat this grave problem. It showcased the commitment of Hazi A.K. Khan College and its NSS unit in contributing to a safer and more aware society.
