Weaknesses:

- The event's reach could have been enhanced by collaborating with other local organizations, such as schools and community groups.
- The event could have been longer to allow for more in-depth discussions on road safety.

Opportunities:

- The event could be replicated in other educational institutions and communities to raise awareness about road safety on a wider scale.
- The NSS could collaborate with other organizations to develop and implement sustainable road safety initiatives.

Challenges:

- Changing people's attitudes and behaviors towards road safety is a long-term challenge.
- Overcoming the deep-rooted cultural and social norms that contribute to unsafe driving practices can be difficult.
