About the Seminar:

Tarasankar Bandyopadhyay (1898–1971) was one of the most prominent Bengali novelists of the 20th century. He was born in a village called Labhpur in Birbhum district of Bengal, which greatly influenced his portrayal of rural life in his works. Bandyopadhyay's writing career spanned several decades, during which he produced a large body of work encompassing novels, short stories, and essays. The topic indicates a literary exploration of rural Bengal, particularly through the lens of Tarasankar, and suggests that this portrayal is not just a factual representation but is also infused with creativity and insight. It promises a deep and imaginative journey into the heart of village life in Bengal.

About the College: Hazi A. K. Khan College is the lone representative institution of Higher Education at Hariharpara Block. Generous Hazi Abdul Kader Khan donated land to set up a college. In 2008, the college started its journey getting affiliation from University of Kalyani with Honours and General courses in some disciplines in Arts. At present twelve academic departments in Arts are there, out of which seven have Honours Courses.
