One Day State Level Seminar
on

WOMEN EDUCATION IN TWENTY-FIRST CENTURY INDIA
Organised by

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
Hazi A.K.Khan College

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT

History of the Department of Education dates back to 2008, since the inception of the college itself. The journey started with the General Course and afterwards, the Honours Course added extra glamour to it in 2014. Since beginning the Department has been functioning as a premier Department of the college in terms of result in specific and adopting a holistic approach in general. Education being an interdisciplinary subject, is gaining popularity among the local aspirants. Lucrative Programme Outcomes is also responsible for sound enrollment. The Department is aiming to impart learning outcome based knowledge by adopting modern instructional methods to the stakeholders with a view to inspire and nurture the young minds to bring out best educators as well as best citizens among them.

RESOURCE PERSON

Dr. Dola Sarkar
Assistant Professor
Department of Education
Plassey College

ABOUT THE SEMINAR

Rokeya Sakhawat Hossain (9 December 1880 – 9 December 1932), commonly known as Begum Rokeya, was a prominent Bengali feminist thinker, writer, educator, professor, teacher and an epitome of women empowerment and political activist for Bengali Muslim girls from undivided Bengal (present-day Bangladesh). She was widely regarded as a pioneer of women's liberation in South Asia. Rokeya is considered as the pioneer feminist of Bengal. She advocated for men and women to be treated equally as rational beings, noting that the lack of education for women was responsible for their inferior economic position. So to propagate 'Women Education in Twenty first Century India', a State Level Seminar on Begum Rokeya will surely justify the issue.

The Department is aiming to impart learning outcome based knowledge by adopting modern instructional methods to the stakeholders with a view to inspire and nurture the young minds to bring out best educators as well as best citizens among them.

About the Seminar

Rokeya Sakhawat Hossain (9 December 1880 – 9 December 1932), commonly known as Begum Rokeya, was a prominent Bengali feminist thinker, writer, educator, professor, teacher and an epitome of women empowerment and political activist for Bengali Muslim girls from undivided Bengal (present-day Bangladesh). So to propagate 'Women Education in Twenty first Century India', a state level seminar on Begum Rokeya will surely justify the issue and add a unique flavor to women empowerment.

Description of the Event

Dr. Krishnendu Munsu, HOD, Department of Education delivered the welcome speech. Then Patron of the event, Dr. Goutam Kumar Ghosh, the Principal delivered a thought provoking speech on the theme. Dr. Dola Sarkar, Assistant Professor, Plassey College was there as the Resource Person who threw some light on contribution of Begum Rokeya towards upliftment of women around undivided Bengal. She lucidly presented her speech on 'Begum Rokeya: The Pioneer in Women's Education and Empowerment' and pointed out relevancy of life and actions of Begum Rokeya with education today. By highlighting activities of Begum Rokeya, Dr Sarkar motivated the attendees significantly. After the lecture she organised an interactive session also.

Dr. Arun Kumar Singha, Assistant Professor, Department of Education gave the vote of thanks.

Objectives of the Seminar:

The Seminar on the theme has been arranged keeping following objectives:

Raise Awareness: To increase awareness about the importance of women's education in the 21st century and its impact on individuals, communities, and the nation's progress.

Identify Challenges: To identify and discuss the ongoing challenges and barriers that hinder women's access to quality education in contemporary India, such as social norms, gender-based discrimination, and economic disparities.

Empowerment: To emphasize how education empowers women by enhancing their knowledge, skills, and decision-making abilities, ultimately leading to greater independence and opportunities.

Gender Equality: To emphasize the role of education in promoting gender equality by challenging stereotypes, reducing gender-based violence, and increasing women's participation in various sectors.

Weaknesses:

Limited attendee: Depending on the venue and format, the event may have a limited audience size, potentially reaching only a specific demographic.

Resource Requirements: Organizing a high-quality lecture event can be resource-intensive in terms of funding, logistical arrangements, and speaker availability.

Opportunities:

Advocacy and Action: The lecture can inspire attendees to become advocates for women's education, leading to grassroots initiatives and policy advocacy.

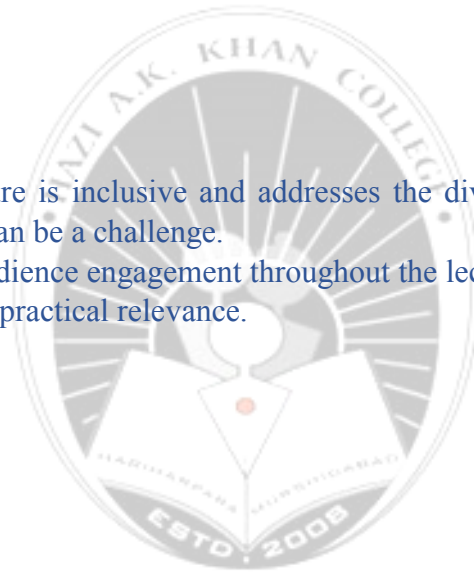

Networking: It offers attendees an opportunity to network with like-minded individuals, organizations, and potential mentors or collaborators.

Knowledge Sharing: The lecture can facilitate the sharing of success stories and innovative approaches to women's education.

Challenges:

Inclusivity: Ensuring that the lecture is inclusive and addresses the diverse needs and challenges faced by women from various backgrounds can be a challenge.

Engaging Content: Maintaining audience engagement throughout the lecture can be challenging, especially if the content is too academic or lacks practical relevance.
