Report: A State level seminar on ‘Child Marriage, Society and Law’ organised by NSS Unit, Hazi A.K. Khan College, in association with Jabala Action Research Organisation, Murshidabad on 8th March, 2019. Tofazzal Hossain, Eminent Social Activist and Aftabuddin, Eminent Social Activist, Jabala Action Research Organisation, Murshidabad were the resource persons. Piyali Dan, Programme Officer, NSS unit, Hazi A.K. Khan College, delivered the welcome speech. Keynote address was given by Dr. Chandrani Pal, TIC, Hazi A.K. Khan College.

After the welcome speech, main session of the seminar was started with the discussion on the above mentioned topic. Mr. Hossain spoke about child marriage and its impact on society. Child marriage is not merely a violation of human rights; it's an impediment to progress. It disrupts the educational journey of countless young minds, perpetuating a cycle of poverty and ignorance. Education, as we know, is the key to unlocking one's full potential. Denying children this right hampers not only their personal growth but also stifles the development of societies at large.

Mr. Aftabuddin talked on laws associated with child marriage. To combat child marriage, we need a multi-faceted approach. First and foremost, we must raise awareness within our communities. Education is a powerful tool that dispels ignorance and challenges outdated beliefs. By fostering open dialogues, we can encourage a reevaluation of cultural norms that perpetuate this harmful practice.

We must work to strengthen legal frameworks that protect children from early marriage. Enforcing laws that establish a minimum age for marriage is essential, but we also need to address the root causes that lead to these practices. It was an exceptional session which enriched the knowledge of the students.

Outcomes:

- All the participants gathered an in-depth information about child marriage and its impact.
- Students who attended the seminar realised the importance to combat with this evil practice.
