Programme: A Drama on Child Marriage organized by the NSS Unit

Date: 11th October 2018

Venue: Hazi A. K. Khan College

No of Participants: 09

Objective:

The drama on child marriage, organized by the National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit of Hazi A. K. Khan College, was aimed at addressing the critical issue of child marriage prevalent in Hariharpara. The objective was to create awareness about the detrimental effects of child marriage on individuals and society, especially in a rural context where this practice is more prominent.

Brief Description:

In an effort to confront a pressing social issue in Hariharpara, the NSS Unit presented a compelling drama focusing on the theme of child marriage. The play, performed by the students of the college, depicted the life-altering consequences of child marriage on young girls, including the disruption of their education and the risks to their health and well-being.

The story revolved around a young girl's aspirations and dreams being cut short due to societal pressure and the imposition of an early marriage. The narrative was a blend of emotional and factual storytelling, designed to strike a chord with the audience and provoke thought on this critical issue.

The performance was particularly impactful given the local relevance of the subject matter. It highlighted the widespread cultural and social challenges that contribute to the persistence of child marriage in rural areas like Hariharpara.

Post-performance, a discussion was held by the faculty members. This discussion provided a platform for dialogue on effective strategies to combat child marriage and emphasized the importance of education and community awareness in tackling such deep-rooted social issues.

Outcome:

- Heightened awareness about the negative impacts of child marriage in the local community.
- Initiated community-wide discussions on changing perceptions and norms regarding child marriage.
- Encouraged student participation in social activism, fostering a sense of responsibility towards societal issues.

The drama not only served as an eye-opener for many but also marked a step towards collective community action against child marriage in Hariharpara. The
