Programme: Inter Departmental Recitation Programme

Date of the Programme: 16th November, 2018

Venue: Hazi A. K. Khan College

Organised by: Cultural Committee, Hazi A.K. Khan College

No of Participants: 09

Brief Description:

The competition was held in Room No. 106, which resonated with the powerful verses of poets from various genres. Students from different departments participated enthusiastically, each bringing their unique style and interpretation to the recitations.

The event was judged by Dr. Krishnendu Muni, IQAC Coordinator and HoD, department of education, who evaluated the performances based on criteria such as expression, diction, and adherence to themes. The audience, comprising students and teachers, provided a supportive atmosphere for the participants.

Objectives:

The objective of the Interdepartmental Recitation Competition was to foster literary appreciation among students and to provide a platform for showcasing their performing talents. It aimed at enhancing the students' oratorical skills and confidence in public speaking.

Outcome:

- Encouraged a deeper engagement with literature across departments.
- Improved the participants' literary skills and public speaking abilities.
- Fostered a sense of camaraderie and healthy competition among students.
- And honored the poetic talents within the college community.

The Interdepartmental Recitation Competition concluded with the announcement of winners, who were applauded for their performances and awarded certificates of excellence. The event was a commendable success, inspiring a love for poetry and recitation among the college's student body.
