Programme: Cultural Programme Organised by NSS Unit

Date of the Programme: 7th February, 2019

Venue: Hazi A. K. Khan College

No of Participants: 08

Objectives:

The Cultural Programme organized by the National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit of Hazi A. K. Khan College aimed to utilize the performing arts as a medium to spread awareness about various social as well as environmental issues like human trafficking, dowry system, superstitions, women education and empowerment, deforestation, global warming etc. The initiative was intended to engage students in addressing societal and environmental challenges through creative expression and to promote social responsibility among the youth.

Brief Description:

The NSS Unit of Hazi A. K. Khan College hosted a Cultural Programme that turned the spotlight on pressing social issues. In this programme students from various departments came together to deliver performances that were not only entertaining but also thought-provoking.

The event featured a series of skits, each spotlighting a different social issue such as environmental conservation, gender equality, substance abuse, and the importance of education. The skits were written, directed, and performed by the students, showcasing their dedication to combining art with activism.

The performances were characterized by poignant narratives, compelling characters, and persuasive messages, all crafted to resonate with the audience and spur them into action. Between the acts, discussions were facilitated by faculty members, allowing students to deliberate over the themes presented and to contemplate the role they could play in addressing these issues.

Outcome:

- Raised student and faculty awareness about social and environmental issues and the potential for positive change through collective action.
- Enhanced students' communication and artistic skills, as well as their ability to work collaboratively on projects with social significance.
- Generated discussions that extended beyond the event, encouraging on going engagement with the topics addressed.
- Fostered a sense of social responsibility and community engagement among the student body.

The Cultural Programme was a resounding success, receiving commendation for its innovative approach to education and social awareness. The event not only
