Programme: Celebration of Indian Constitution Day

Programme Date: 26th November, 2021

Venue: Hazi A.K. Khan College

No of Participants: 17

Brief Description:

Indian Constitution Day was celebrated on 26th November 2021 by the Political Science Department of Hazi A.K Khan College. On that day the Constitution of India was adopted. The celebration of the day instills a sense of patriotism and unity among the student teachers and the program honors the Constitution of India with various activities and displays by the students. As the Constitution of India was adopted on November 26, 1949, the day was commemorated through a circular in 2015.

Objectives:

Students have an opportunity to gain more knowledge about the ethics and values of the Indian Constitution.

Students will get an opportunity to evaluate the strengthening of Indian democracy and proper responsibilities of all Indians.

Outcomes:

Political Science students of Hazi A.K Khan College will learn about India and the rights of citizens of India through the celebration of Indian Constitution Day.

To make students interested in the values of the Indian Constitution and the thoughts and meditations of Dr. B.R Ambedkar, the father of the Indian Constitution, will create a new concept among the students.
