Programme: Birth Anniversary of Swami Vivekananda

Programme Date: 13th January, 2022

Venue: Hazi A.K. Khan College

No of Participants: 18

Description of the Programme:

On birth anniversary (12.01.2022) of the great sage of the country, Swami Vivekananda, Department of Education, planned a cultural programme which was organized on 13.01.22 with the title, 'Vivekananda and Man-making Education'. The programme was started with garlanding the portrait of Swamiji by teachers and few students of the Department. Then Ismile Hoque, Teacher of the Department delivered welcome speech where he explained Man-making concept of Swami Vivekananda. Maintaining the gravity of the programme, Arnika khatun, a student presented a devotional song. Then Jesia Yeasmin Jeba recited a poem written by Sukanta Bhattacharya. Ainul Islam, another student then delivered a short speech on philosophy of Swamiji. Mahafuja Yeasmin performed a dance to add a new flavor to the programme. Then Mst. Najmunnahar focused on educational contribution of Swami Vivekananda in her short speech. Finally, Mithun Saikh, Teacher of the Department, ended the programme with few words' contribution of Swamiji in motivating youth to build a new India. All present there enjoyed the programme.

Objective of the Programme:

- To disseminate the teachings and philosophy of Swami Vivekananda, particularly focusing on his views on education and the concept of "Man-making" education, aiming to enlighten students and faculty members.
- To inspire and motivate students towards the holistic development of their character, emphasizing the values of discipline, integrity, and self-realization as advocated by Swami Vivekananda.
- Foster a sense of cultural integration by showcasing the rich heritage and spiritual essence embedded in Vivekananda's teachings, emphasizing the cultural roots that contribute to the development of a well-rounded individual.
- Encourage students to engage critically with Swami Vivekananda's ideas on education, prompting thoughtful discussions and reflections on how these principles can be applied in contemporary educational settings.
- Highlight Vivekananda's emphasis on leadership and nation-building, with a focus on how education plays a pivotal role in nurturing leaders who contribute positively to society.
- Showcase cultural performances reflecting the essence of Vivekananda's teachings, promoting a creative and expressive understanding of his philosophy.
