Programme: Celebrating "Shiba Prasad Chatterjee's Birth Anniversary: A Tribute to a Geographical Pioneer"

Programme Date: 22th February, 2022

Venue: Hazi A.K. Khan College

No of Participants: 16

Brief Description:

The cultural program unfolded as a dynamic and immersive experience, engaging the audience in a variety of ways:

The programme started with the welcome address by Sri Prottyus Kumar Ghosh, HOD, Department of Geography at 12.30 P.M.

Placing Garlands in Shivprasad Chatterjee's Picture: The event commenced with a poignant moment of respect as garlands were placed on Shivprasad Chatterjee's picture.

Speech about Shiba Prasad Chatterjee: A comprehensive speech provided context to the audience, delving into the life and achievements of Shiba Prasad Chatterjee. This segment served as an intellectual cornerstone, setting the tone for the cultural celebration.

Poetry Recitation: Participants recited poems inspired by Shiba Prasad Chatterjee and his contributions to geography. The poetic expressions added an emotional and artistic layer to the tribute, allowing for a more profound connection with the audience.

Quiz on Geographical Milestones: An interactive quiz challenged the audience's knowledge of geographical milestones, drawing from the legacy of Shiba Prasad Chatterjee. This segment aimed to blend education with entertainment, fostering a spirit of friendly competition.

Musical Performances: The program extended with soulful musical performances that resonated with the cultural theme. Songs and melodies were carefully chosen to complement the geographical narrative and evoke a sense of celebration.

The programme concluded with a warm vote of thanks by Sri Parimal Karmakar, Faculty, Department of Geography.

Objectives:

The multifaceted objectives of the cultural program were meticulously designed to create a wholesome and enriching experience for participants:

To Commemorate Shiba Prasad Chatterjee: The primary goal was to pay homage to the life and work of Shiba Prasad Chatterjee, a pioneering figure in geography. Through this, the organizers aimed to instill a sense of pride and inspiration among the students and faculty.

Promote Cultural Awareness: Beyond academics, the event sought to foster cultural awareness by integrating traditional elements into the celebration. This was not just a tribute but an opportunity to broaden perspectives and celebrate diversity.

Encourage Student Participation: A key objective was to provide a platform for students to showcase their talents and creativity. This involvement aimed at nurturing a sense of confidence and camaraderie among the participants.

Outcomes:

The cultural program yielded several positive outcomes that resonated with the goals set forth:

Attendees, including students and faculty, left with a heightened appreciation for the cultural tapestry that intertwines with geographical studies. The program successfully broke down perceived barriers between disciplines.

Seventeen enthusiastic participants actively contributed to the success of the event. This not only showcased the talent within the student body but also indicated a desire for more such inclusive and participatory events.

Beyond the celebratory aspects, the program served as a valuable knowledge-sharing platform. Attendees gained a deeper understanding of Shiba Prasad Chatterjee's contributions, promoting a broader dissemination of geographical knowledge. The participants, particularly the students, expressed their appreciation for the event and the valuable insights gained.
