Programme: International Museum Day Celebration

Programme Date: 18th May, 2022

Venue: Hazi A.K. Khan College

No of Participants: 18

Brief Description:

The Department of History at Hazi A. K. Khan College celebrated International Museum Day on 18th May 2022, showcasing a rich tapestry of historical artifacts and exhibits. The event aimed to promote awareness of the importance of museums in cultural exchange, fostering a deeper understanding of the role history plays in shaping societies.

Objectives:

Cultural Education: To provide students with an opportunity to engage with historical artifacts, fostering an appreciation for cultural heritage and the significance of preserving historical objects.

Promotion of Museums: To raise awareness about the role museums play in preserving and presenting cultural, scientific, and historical collections, and to encourage more people to visit and support museums.

Academic Engagement: To integrate the celebration into the academic curriculum, encouraging students to explore the historical significance of artifacts and connect theoretical knowledge with tangible exhibits.

Outcomes:

Increased Awareness: The celebration heightened awareness among students and faculty about the importance of museums as repositories of cultural heritage and historical knowledge.

Enhanced Academic Interest: Students developed a keener interest in historical studies as they engaged with the exhibits, linking classroom theories with tangible artifacts, thereby enriching their academic experience.

Cultural Appreciation: Attendees gained a deeper appreciation for cultural diversity and historical continuity through the exploration of artifacts, fostering a sense of pride and identity.

Promotion of Department: The event served as a platform to showcase the academic prowess of the Department of History, enhancing the department's visibility and reputation within the college.
