Programme Name: “Kite Festival”

Programme Date: 20th September, 2022

Venue: Hazi A. K. Khan College Campus

No of Prticipants: 10

Brief Description:

Hazi A. K. Khan College hosted a vibrant Kite Festival Celebration, turning the college grounds into a kaleidoscope of colors as students and faculty gathered to participate in the age-old tradition of kite flying. The event aimed to revive and celebrate this cultural practice, bringing together the college community in a day of fun, skill, and camaraderie. Kites of various shapes and sizes filled the sky, creating a lively and festive atmosphere.

Objectives:

- The primary objective of the Kite Festival Celebration was to revive and celebrate the cultural tradition of kite flying, fostering an appreciation for this art form among the college community.
- The event aimed to promote a sense of community and unity within the college. Students, faculty, and staff were encouraged to participate, reinforcing the bonds among the diverse members of the college.
- Kite flying involves skill and technique. The festival provided an opportunity for participants to develop or showcase their skills in flying and manoeuvring kites, promoting a sense of healthy competition and sportsmanship.

Outcomes:

- The Kite Festival Celebration successfully revived interest in the traditional art of kite flying, with participants gaining a deeper appreciation for the cultural significance of this age-old practice.
- The event contributed to a sense of community and togetherness within Hazi A. K. Khan College. Students, faculty, and staff interacted outside of academic settings, fostering stronger social connections.
- Participants, especially those new to kite flying, had the opportunity to develop and showcase their skills. The festival became a platform for skill enhancement and friendly competition.
- The festive atmosphere created by the Kite Festival had a positive impact on the overall ambiance of the college. It provided a refreshing break from routine and added vibrancy to campus life.
