Programme Name: “Cultural Activities & PT Parade Organised by NSS Unit, KU”

Programme Date: 26th September, 2022

Venue: University of Kalyani, Nadia, West Bengal

No of Prticipants: 03

Brief Description:

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit at Kalyani University organized a vibrant event on 26th September 2022, featuring a combination of cultural activities and a Physical Training (PT) parade. The students of the NSS Unit, Hazi A. K. Khan College participated actively in the programme organised by the NSS Unit, Kalyani University. The event aimed to engage students in both artistic expression and physical fitness, aligning with the NSS's holistic approach to community service and personal development.

Objectives:

- Cultural Expression: The primary objective was to provide a platform for students to showcase their talents in various cultural domains, including music, dance, drama, and visual arts. This aimed to foster creativity, self-expression, and appreciation for diverse forms of cultural heritage.
- Physical Fitness: Another objective was to promote physical well-being and discipline among students through a PT parade. The event sought to instill the importance of regular exercise, teamwork, and leadership skills, aligning with the NSS's emphasis on holistic development.
- Community Engagement: The event aimed to strengthen the sense of community within the university. By bringing students together through cultural activities and a shared physical endeavor, the NSS unit sought to enhance camaraderie and promote a spirit of unity.

Outcomes:

- Artistic Expression: The cultural activities showcased the rich diversity of talents among the student body. Participants gained confidence by performing in front of their peers, fostering a positive and supportive atmosphere within the university.
- Physical Well-being: The PT parade contributed to the physical fitness of the participants, promoting a healthy lifestyle. It instilled values of discipline, teamwork, and leadership, which are crucial for personal and professional development.
- Community Building: The event successfully brought students from different departments and backgrounds together. It facilitated interactions, building bridges between diverse groups and creating a more inclusive campus environment.
- NSS Unit Visibility: The event enhanced the visibility of the NSS unit within the university. By organizing a well-rounded program, the NSS unit showcased its commitment to fostering not only community service but also a comprehensive approach to student development.
