Programme Name: Remembering Katherine Mansfield on Her Death Centenary

Programme Date: 9th January, 2023

Venue: Hazi A.K. Khan College

No of Prticipants: 26

Brief Description:

The Department of English, Hazi A. K. Khan College organized a departmental programme to remember Katherine Mansfield on her death centenary. The items included—

Speech on the life of Mansfield

Extempore on Mansfield's short stories

Dramatization of Fly

Objective:

The objectives of this programme include—remembering Katherine Mansfield; paying homage to the great author of short stories.

Strength:

The students very actively and spontaneously organized the programme. Their participation in the programme made it successful. One student Abul Basar Ansary himself came forward to dramatize the story of Fly. For this, he himself made an artificial fly.

Weakness:

To conduct such a programme involved some difficulties. While some students came forward actively, some remained aloof as usual. Besides, the typical shyness often prevented them to perform on stage.

Opportunities:

This programme found the willingness of students to conduct cultural programme on an author's death centenary. It became a great opportunity to discover our students' hidden talent to make artwork like making a very beautiful artificial fly. Added to this, students' willingness to dramatize a short story and perform it added a remarkable feather to the dignity of the Department.

Challenges:

To engage the students in various performances appeared challenging. Though the students tried their best to make the programme successful, lack of time and fund restricted some items.

Outcomes:

We found—

Students' creativity in artwork.

Students' literary sense to dramatize a short story.

Students' active participation in extempore.

Our department paying homage to an author on her day of death to indicate the immortality of her creation.
