Programme: Celebration of Buddha Purnima

Programme Date: 6th May, 2023

Venue: Hazi A.K. Khan College

No. of Participants: 19

Brief Description:

The Department of Philosophy at Hazi A.K. Khan College organized a meaningful and vibrant celebration of Buddha Purnima on the 6th of May 2023. The event was carefully curated to delve into the philosophical depths of Buddha's teachings, attracting students, faculty, and philosophy enthusiasts from across the college community. The occasion aimed to provide a platform for thoughtful reflection and engagement with the profound philosophy of Buddhism.

Objectives:

The primary objective of the Buddha Purnima celebration by the Department of Philosophy was to facilitate a deeper understanding of Buddhist philosophy and its implications for contemporary life. The event sought to create an atmosphere where participants could explore the ethical, moral, and existential aspects of Buddha's teachings. Through academic discourse and experiential learning, the organizers aimed to foster a sense of intellectual curiosity and spiritual introspection among the attendees.

Outcomes:

Esteemed scholars and professors from the Department of Philosophy led engaging discussions on key aspects of Buddhist philosophy, including the concept of impermanence, suffering, and the path to enlightenment. These sessions encouraged critical thinking and provided participants with a comprehensive understanding of the philosophical underpinnings of Buddhism.

The celebration incorporated cultural elements with performances reflecting the rich heritage of Buddhist traditions. Students showcased traditional dances, music, and art forms that highlighted the cultural diversity and spiritual richness associated with Buddhism.
