About the Seminar
In a world where conflicts persist, and peace is often fragile, the importance of education as a catalyst for lasting peace cannot be overstated. In today's interconnected and rapidly changing world, the need for peaceful coexistence has never been more evident. From local communities to the global stage, conflicts arise due to a myriad of factors – be it social, political, economic, or cultural. Yet, amidst these challenges, lies the potential for positive change, and education stands as a beacon of hope. It is a great pleasure that the Department has decided convene this seminar today to students to delve into this critical topic and explore how education can serve as a powerful tool in the pursuit of peace.
