Name of the event:	Survey Programme
Date of the event:	27/02/2022
Venue of the event:	Keshaipur Village
Event category:	General Survey
Number of Participants:	41

Objectives:

1. To gather information of local peoples in order to increase their lifestyle.
2. Analyse the data to identify areas to improve.

Brief Description of the Programme

NSS volunteers of the college organised a survey in the vicinity of Keshaipur Village. They went door to door to gather information and data. They engaged with locals directly and asked various questions regarding their economic, social and environmental engagement. After collecting data volunteers analysed them and tried to find out the weakness and lacuna, disparity in the area.

SWOC Analysis

Strengths:

- NSS Volunteers collected data with honesty.
- Successful organization and execution of the survey program.

Weaknesses:

- Potential failure to collect data from all families.
- Lack of broad survey partnerships with government bodies and NGOs.

Opportunities:

- Collaboration potential with government bodies and NGOs for broader surveys.
- Scope for expanding the survey's coverage to track changes over time.
- Opportunity for community engagement and empowerment.

Challenges:

- Difficulty in collecting data from all households.
- Resource constraints for conducting extensive surveys.
- Sustainability of initiatives beyond the survey phase.

OUTCOMES

The NSS team successfully organised the survey and collected data. They also successfully analysed the data to find out the areas to improve.
