Name of the event:	Har Ghar Teranga
Date of the event:	14/08/2022
Venue of the event:	Keshaipur Village
Event category:	National
Number of Participants:	12

Objectives:

1. To promote patriotism and a sense of national pride among community members.
2. To encourage the display of the Indian national flag in every household.
3. To foster unity and solidarity among residents through a shared symbol of national identity.

Brief Description of the Programme

The NSS unit conducted an extensive awareness campaign in local neighborhoods, educating residents about the importance of displaying the national flag. NSS volunteers distributed Indian national flags to households willing to participate, along with brief interactions emphasizing the significance of hoisting the flag. NSS volunteers also engaged with various community groups, encouraging them to join the "Har Ghar Tiranga" movement.

SWOC Analysis

Strengths:

- Strong support from NSS volunteers and college faculty.
- Positive response from the local community, indicating widespread enthusiasm for the initiative.
- Successful distribution of flags to a significant number of households.

Weaknesses :

- Limited resources for extensive distribution and outreach.
- Challenges in reaching remote or inaccessible areas within the community.
- Possible resistance or apathy from certain individuals or households towards participating in the programme.

Opportunities:

- Potential for collaboration with local government bodies or organizations to expand outreach efforts.
- Opportunity to incorporate educational activities or workshops on national symbols and values.
- Possibility of engaging with media channels to amplify the impact and reach of the initiative.

Challenges:

- Ensuring sustained participation and engagement from community members beyond the initial phase of the programme.
- Overcoming logistical challenges in coordinating distribution efforts and organizing community events.
- Addressing any cultural or socio-economic barriers that may hinder participation or acceptance of the initiative.

OUTCOMES

1. Overwhelming response from the community, with a significant number of households participating in the initiative.
2. Enhanced sense of patriotism and national pride among residents, reflected in the widespread display of the Indian flag.
3. Increased awareness and appreciation for the significance of national symbols and values, contributing to a more cohesive and inclusive society.
