

Report on Orientation Programme for B.A. 1st Semester History Major Students

Date: August 9, 2024

Time: 12:30 p.m.

Venue: Room No. 110 (Old Building)

The Department of History organized an Orientation Programme for B.A. 1st Semester History major students on August 9, 2024. The programme aimed to familiarize new entrants with the reforms in the course structure under the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020, Brief discussion of the syllabus and its Programme Outcome and Course Outcome.

Objectives:

- To introduce new students to the revised course structure and its requirements
- To familiarize students with the Programme Outcome and Course Outcome
- To ensure a smooth transition for new students into the revised course structure

About the Programme:

The programme was attended by 1st Semester History Major students and the session was conducted by the Department of History faculty members. The attendees were introduced to the revised course structure by Dr. Piyali Dan. The session provided a comprehensive understanding of the changes implemented under NEP 2020 and their implications on the students' academic journey. Dr. Chandrani Pal demonstrated the department's commitment to supporting students' academic success, leading to an enhanced student experience. Badsa Khan and Aniket Sarkar both discussed about the Programme Outcome and Course Outcome.

Outcomes:

The programme was successful in achieving its objectives. New entrants gained a comprehensive understanding of the revised course structure and its requirements. The session set a strong foundation for their academic success and ensured a smooth transition into the revised course structure.

Conclusion:

The Orientation Programme was a vital initiative by the Department of History to support new students' academic success. The programme demonstrated the department's commitment to providing a supportive learning environment, and its success will have a positive impact on students' academic performance and overall experience.
