

REPORT ON ORIENTATION PROGRAMME FOR 1ST SEMESTER GEOGRAPHY MAJOR STUDENTS 2024-25

Organised by: Department of Geography, Hazi A. K. Khan College.

Date: 10.08.2024

Time: From 11.00 A.M.

Venue: Geography Laboratory, Hazi A. K. Khan College.

Objectives: The objectives of the Orientation Programme were:

- To familiarize students with the recent reforms in the course structure under the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020.
- To provide an overview of the Geography syllabus and curriculum for the 1st semester.
- To explain the examination system and the methods of evaluation.
- To outline the programme outcomes and course outcomes to guide students throughout their academic journey.

Programme Description: The Orientation Programme was organized by the Department of Geography on the 10th of August, 2024, starting at 11:00 AM. The event began with a welcome address by Prottyus Kumar Ghosh, the Head of the Department (HOD) of Geography, who emphasized the significance of the NEP 2020 reforms and their impact on the Geography curriculum. He also highlighted the department's commitment to providing quality education that aligns with the new policy.

Following the HOD's speech, Mr. Parimal Karmakar, a faculty member of the department, presented an in-depth analysis of the new Geography syllabus and curriculum. He explained the changes introduced under NEP 2020 and how these reforms would enhance the learning experience and better prepare students for future academic and career challenges.

Next, Mr. Bubai Ghosh, another esteemed faculty member, took the stage to discuss the examination system. He provided insights into the evaluation methods and the importance of continuous assessment in the new curriculum. He also elaborated on the programme outcomes and course outcomes, stressing the importance of understanding these objectives to excel in their academic journey.

The session was interactive, with students encouraged to ask questions and seek clarifications on any doubts they had regarding the new curriculum and examination system.

Outcomes: The Orientation Programme successfully achieved its objectives. The students gained a clear understanding of the new course structure under NEP 2020, the Geography syllabus, and the examination system. They also became aware of the programme outcomes and course outcomes, which will guide them throughout their academic journey. The interactive session allowed students to clarify their doubts, making them feel more confident and prepared for the upcoming semester.

Conclusion: The Orientation Programme for the 1st semester Geography Major students was a significant step towards ensuring a smooth transition into the new academic session. The detailed presentations by the faculty members and the interactive nature of the session provided students with a solid foundation to start their studies. The department's efforts to align with NEP 2020 reforms were well-communicated, and the students left the programme with a clear understanding of what is expected of them in the coming years.
